

FFC Awarded Social Responsibility Award 2012 by SKMT

In recognition to FFC's continuous support to the leading welfare hospital for cancer patients in Pakistan, FFC has been awarded 2012 Social Responsibility Award by Shaukat Khanum Cancer Hospital. The awards were held on 11th April 2013 at SKMT Cancer Hospital and Research Center, Lahore. Fauji Fertilizer Company Limited has contributed Rs 25 million for the construction of Shaukat Khanum Cancer Hospital and Research Center, Peshawar till date. FFC assistance to the cancer facility is for the construction of Radiation Department. FFC through its CSR program allocated Rs 5 million in 2012 whereas Rs 20 million has been awarded in the 2013. FFC was represented by Senior Manager CSR and Corporate Communications Brig @ Munawar Hayat Niazi at the award ceremony. Also, during a ceremony held at FFC Head Office (Sona Towers, Rwp) as part of FFC-SKMH Anti Tobacco session, SM CSR & CC presented the cheque for FFC assistance to Mr Mirza Rizwan Baig, Manager Fundraising (North) for Shaukat Khanum.

