

Hexa-copter Training by DJI China

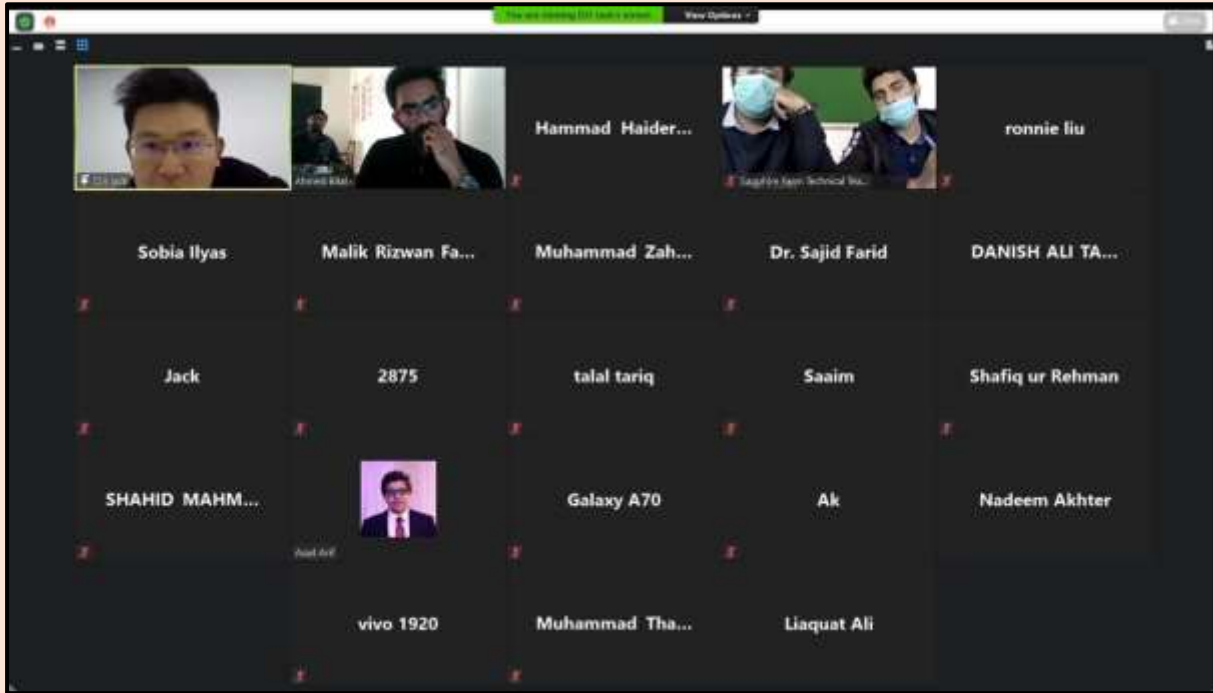

Food Security & Agriculture Center of Excellence (FACE) in collaboration with Sapphire Farms Limited and DJI China, the largest manufacturers of drones in the world arranged for 2-day product trainings on the newly acquired hexa-copters on 17th and 18th of December 2020.

FACE Team attending the Zoom session

SFL Team from Ahmedpur Lamma

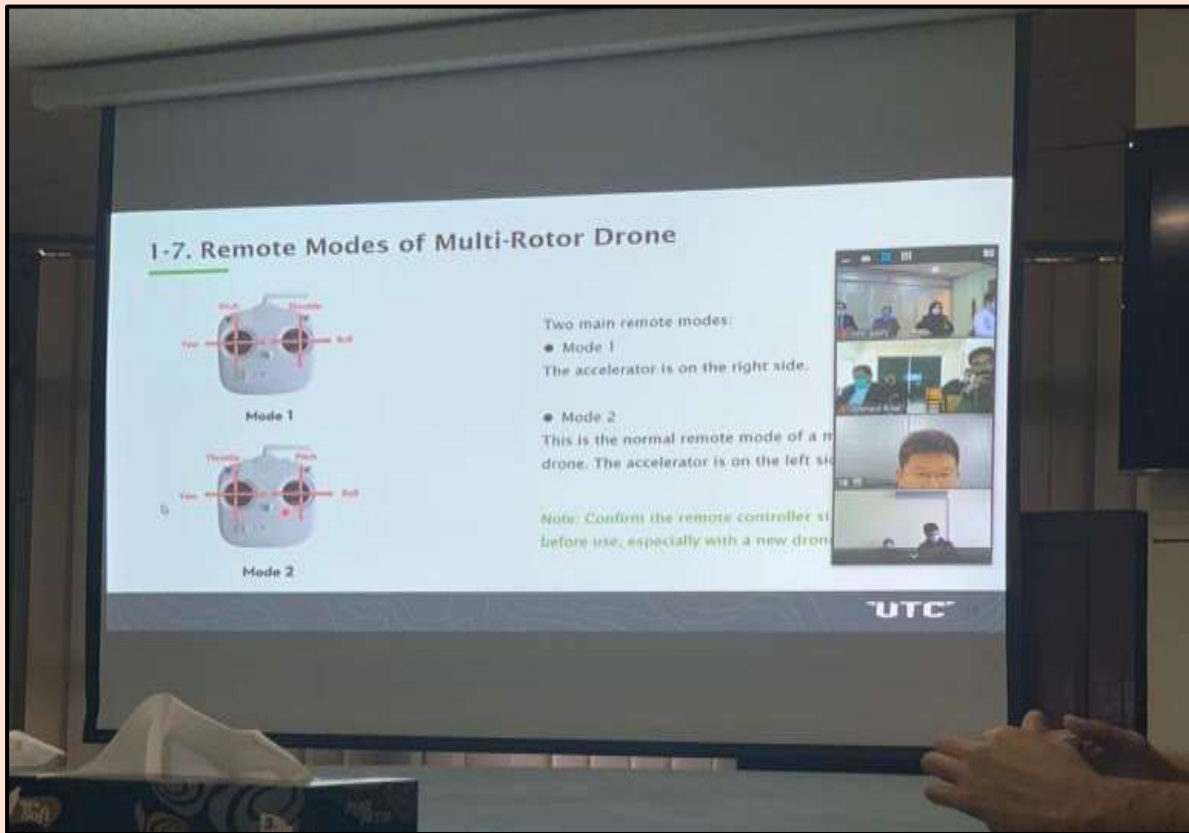

Some of the participants from the Zoom session

Online trainings on basic understanding, operational procedures and state of the art Agricultural capabilities of the Agras T16, T20 and the Phantom 4 Multispectral drones were conducted by Chinese trainers from DJI China which was attended by over 60 participants. The trainings were aired on Zoom for maximum outreach, Mr. Ather Javed, GGM-MKT attended the meeting on zoom along with other FFC officers from FFC Head Office Rawalpindi, Marketing Group Office Lahore, Plant-site and Farm Advisory Centers across Pakistan.

FACE Team Marketing Group Office Lahore

FACE now stations a fleet of fully equipped DJI Hexa-copters as an efficient, economical and ecofriendly farming solution. The aerial based hexa-copters owing to their new technology caters to precision agriculture and mapping needs for the benefit of the rural farmer.

Demonstration on operation of Hexa-copters

Sapphire Team attending the session

DJI Agras T16 Hexa-copter

Phantom 4 Multispectral Drone